On 23 December 1953, the barrier on the road to Colbitz was closed. Camp Born was only occupied by a guard detail of 20 to 30 soldiers who allegedly came from Burg. A colonel with his dependents and several other officers were billeted at Planken Forstamt. All guard details at the various camps were subordinate to this colonel. Camp Huetten-Planken apparently was vacant. On 2 January 1954, sedan  occupied by three officers passed through Born toward Haldensleben.

Comment. The information indicates that all camps in the woods in the southern sector of Letzling Heath are occupied by guard details only. The sedan belonged to the Hq Third Shock Army.
